

COAT OF ARMS

Battle Crest

The Battalion's campaigns in Vietnam are represented by the dragon's face, Jessant-de-Lis to honor the Battalion's World War II campaigns in Northern France and other European theaters. The swords represent each of these conflicts and are placed saltire wise, denoting conflict with honor. The many decorations and honors distinguishing the unit's service are symbolized by the wreath of laurel. Red denotes courage and gold is representative of excellence.
